A BIG CROWD TURNS OUT

Many Washingtonians Present, Despite Rainy Weather-Hotel Kernan Purse Furnishes Best Race of Afternoon and Is Won by Reybourn-The Monk Also Shows,

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltomire, April 21.-It augurs well for racing that the attendance at Pimlico to-day was one of the largest ever seen at the Baltimore course on a rainy day. More disagreeable weather could not be imagined. Rain began to fall long before the races began, but this did not deter the Baltimore and Washington contingents from turning out.

That the National Capital is taking a keen interest in the races was evident by the big representation to-day. Among those who attended were a number of members of Congress.

THE TURK WINS EASILY.

Racing at the Aqueduct Track Bristles with Features. New York, April 21. - Racing that bristled with features was enjoyed by about 2,500 enthusiasts at Aqueduct today. The Arvorne stakes for three-yearolds introduced the Silver Brook Farm's finely developed Heno colt, The Turk, who won in the most impressive style. He was in splendid racing trim, and led all the way in majestic style. At the wire he had two and a half lengths over Duke of Ormonde, generally overlooked, who ran an excellent race. Prince Imperial might have been second had it not been for the fact that he wheeled at the post when the barrier went up.

S. C. Hildreth and August Belmont wor their first races of the season. Hildreth had old Dandelion very fit, and the son of Hamburg captured the first race. Mr. Belmont's colors were carried to the front by Babbler in the sixth race. The
